

Law Enforcement Workshop Intelligence Analysis & Cyber Security

March 29 - 30, 2016 | One Box Convention Center | Broken Bow, Nebraska

Who should attend:

Law Enforcement Officers, Dispatchers, Fire and EMS Responders, Emergency Managers, Elected Officials, Security Professionals, School Security and Administrators, and interested individuals

Summary:

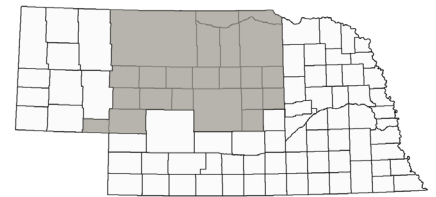

This workshop will focus on issues related to terrorism prevention, intelligence gathering & analysis, cyber security, and social media for law enforcement and responders. Presentations at this conference include:

Day 1: 1 PM - 5 PM

- Anti-terrorism intelligence analysis & gathering: A Bomb Squad Perspective
- Intelligence reporting, gathering, and analysis and Nebraska resources

Day 2: 9 AM - 1 PM

- Common cyber threats to state, local, and territorial governments
- Social media & cyber security
- National Guard Cyber Analysis Center in Nebraska

Sponsored by the North Central Nebraska Planning, Exercise & Training Region

Registration: Registration for this conference is free and snacks are included; however, registration is required.

Register online at: <http://homelandplanning.nebraska.edu> or by calling 402-472-5678.

Registration is limited to the first 100 registrants.

Hotel: A block of rooms has been set aside at the Cobblestone Inn & Suites, 2750 South 27th Avenue Broken Bow, NE 68822. To reserve your room, call 888-693-8262.

Social Media

Intelligence
Gathering &
Analysis

Terrorism
Prevention

Cyber
Security

Continuing Education

Eight (8) hours of continuing education are provided for law enforcement, approved by the Nebraska Law Enforcement Training Center.

This conference is provided by the North Central Planning, Exercise, and Training Region through the State Homeland Security Grant and the University of Nebraska Public Policy Center.

For more information and to register, visit:

HomelandPlanning.Nebraska.Edu